

Paul Green

Founder and President of The Paul Green School of Rock Music

PHILADELPHIA'S ENTREPRENEUR IDOL JUDGE

Paul Green is the founder and president of The Paul Green School of Rock Music, the nations first and premier performance based rock music school. A graduate of the University of Pennsylvania (BA Philosophy 2001), Paul was the apparent inspiration for Jack Black's character in "School of Rock," as well as the subject of the NewMarket/A&E Documentary "Rock School."

There are currently over 25 branches of The Paul Green School of Rock Music, Coast to Coast, with more opening all of the time. The students have also been touring the nation, playing Lollapalooza and other festivals, as well as appearing on Fox and Friends, and in Rolling Stone and Time magazine over the past year. October saw the launch of "School of Rock Magazine" in partnership with GuitarPlayer.